

In an e-mail dated 6/15/2011 from "Flag Man" <stephen@van-hecke.net>:

Hello all.

I have begun the uploading of the 5064 or so pictures I took on the Run for the Wall 2011. (TX to DC for me).

The pictures will hopefully complete uploading by noon on 2011/06/15.

To view the pictures, go to, or type in your web browser:

<http://www.van-hecke.net/rftw>

You will see the years on the left.

Click the year you wish to see pictures for.

This will open another window with the days listed.

Click the day you wish to see pictures for.

This will open another window with the pictures from that day listed.

Click on any thumbnail and it will open a 1536x1024 picture for you to view.

You can click the "next" , "previous", or "home" buttons to navigate through the pictures.

You can "Right-Click" any picture and save it to your hard drive if you wish.

If you want the full-sized picture, email me at stephen@van-hecke.net and tell me what the name of the picture is.

(Example 1: Description: Year 2011 - Day 5 - Picture 123)

OR

(Example 2: the actual file name: RFTW 2011 - Day 05 - 2011-05-22 - 123.jpg)

I will email the full sized picture to you individually, most of them are around 1meg, some are larger.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you all,
